Linda,
For once I'm going to try to be nice. We had some great times. Sorry about always teasing you but I'm naturally mean. Well I've run out of nice things to say. I'll always remember the picnic and C.Y.O. and before school in the Chem. room. Hope to see you again ('to base ya'), and don't chase the Chicago boys to death.

Devoted to her task of librarian, Ruth Van Tress is always ready to lend a helping hand. Even though most of her time is consumed by helping students not so familiar with the Dewey Decimal System, Miss Van Tress finds time to sponsor Y-Teens and to guide her assistant librarians.

Miss Van Tress has spent the past nineteen years in the services of Creston High School.

It is to this devoted librarian that we dedicate this yearbook.

Lin,

What do you say to some one who's been your best friend for so long. Thinking about all the things Margie, you and I have done brings back some of my fondest memories. We've done a lot of stupid things I know but at the time they were really important to us. Right? I suppose our sophmore year was really about the best. We were really amateurs. Befor school we would walk from 1st floor to 3rd and back and forth looking over all the boys. Remember how we used to eat lunch in the locker room on Tues and Thurs. Don't know how we stood the smell. Our note writing was something else. It's a wonder we didn't flunk out. I bet people really thought we were queer passing notes back and forth between classes. We were both a couple of idols in Gym. and I remember how you used to study your speeches befor 5th. period up by the Biology room.

I guess we were just normal but we were sure boy crazy. It's really funny now when I think about it. Your big crush on Mark after the Rapid I was even looking forward to having you for a sista in law. Ha! You always signed your name Marbie. - Gramma Grunt -

JUNIORS

And Kib McCann was our idol for a short time then we drowned him at Williams

Remember our anxieties before the school dances and what a flop they turned out to be.

How about all these notes Ron Miller kept writing you. Poor kid you did break his heart. And the crush you had on Dave Crowe how mad you were when he showed Becky the note you wrote him. And how we used to fight over who was gonna get to feed the patients at the hospital. Ha. We were really sneaky the way we used to snitch ice & ice cream. I don't really think we'd make very good nurses. We really used to get into some good discussions especially at the slumber parties. Remember those dirty fortunes about you and Mark & his pants. Bad! The retreat at Conception was fun I know you and Tom thought so. Remember all the special songs we used to have and how we used to play the Leslie Gore albums constantly. (cont'd on next page)

Our junior year was fun too with the prom etc. I'm just sorry it had to end so terrible. When you started crying at your going away party I couldn't help it, I had to cry too. I guess it really hit me then that you were actually leaving for good. I'm glad you got to come back this summer. At we get to see each other of ten.

Juniors Get Prom Fever

I'm sure we'll be friends forever because friends like you are come almost in a lifetime.

Love always,
Mary Lynn

New Experiences Greet the Sophomores at CHS

Making a real effort to do their part, the sophomores contributed their share to the Homecoming festivities. This float, having the theme "Murderer's Row." placed third in the parade. Dressed the part, Patty Jones, Debbie Dillenburg, Diane Lightener, and Karen Veatch "try" for a victory.

Chapter Gets New Building

Dave Johnson (left), FFA vice-president, instructor Evert Nunsicker, and FFA President Doug Abel look at plans for the new ag building, which will be ready for the 1968-69 school year.

Although membership in Future Farmers of America is not required of those taking Vocational Agriculture, all the Creston Ag students are members of the local FFA chapter. In their freshman year, the boys study breeds of livestock; sophomores investigate feeds, animal nutrition, and field crops; juniors study soils and conservation; and seniors concentrate on farm management. FFA provides outside experience along the same lines plus opportunities to expand fields of interest.

One of the highlights of the year for the chapter members concerned the school board's approval of a new 40' X 80' steel building that will house the ag department starting in the Fall of 1968.

Jerome Hruska, woodworking and metals instructor, inspects the edge of Mike Short's woodworking project.

Industrial Arts

Though the three shop classes—metals, woodworking, and drafting—are separate courses, they are all interrelated. An example of this teamwork occurred this year when advanced drafting students Gayle Woods and Bob Tallmon designed a sheet metal dust guard for the woodworking class's circular saw. The device was subsequently constructed by the metals class and will probably be in use for years to come.

Dr. Walter E. Hart, Assistant Professor Director, School Facilities Planning Service of Iowa State University, spoke to the assembled graduates at the Commencement exercises. His address was entitled, "The Next Eighteen Years."

Hours of classes, tedious studies, learning, laughing, cheering, and crying ... then the reward!—knowledge: the fruit of our labors and the greatest prize.

Linda,
Although I hardly know you impressed me to be a quiet, sweet,
person who takes life in stride.
It's a great policy! Lynda, there's somethin
I've always wanted to do, so here goes!
"Hi" Linda " See I'm not stuck
Your a great girl & always stay that way!
Good Luck in Everything!
Mary Daughto

Dear Linda, (Boobie)

Margie says she wants this page saved for her but I don't know if I can fill it anyway. I've already written in here once but when I compare it to everyone else's writings I know I can think of more than they did.

In the short time I've known you we became great friends. I hope it stays that way. You're one of the nuttiest girls I know and I hope you never change. If everyone in Chicago was half as funny and friendly as you there wouldn't be any riots.

Remember when we first really got to know each other in Vocal. You were so quiet at first I hardly knew you were there. Boy, I found out different! Don't forget Phys. Ed. either and how we tried to pick each other off in "Prisoner's Base." Things will sure be quiet without you around.

Don't forget all the walking you made me do while you were back. I sure won't. I must have lost 5 pounds.

Remember all the fun we had at your going away party at the beach. Glad we surprised you. I'll never forget all the trouble I had getting everybody to hide!

Well, I'm out of room so I better stop writing. Be good and lots of luck! I sure miss ya. Maybe Marg, Mary Lynn, & I can (over)

Linda,
Best of luck in Chicago! I'd know everyone here misses you! It sure was more peaceful in F.N.C.! HA.
God Bless,
Angie

(cont. from last page)
save up all our money & come see ya next summer.
Your ga,
"Starry" Starry

Linda,
I just finished writing a letter to Pearl (one of my best friends & I've known one thing & have to tell someone you have to be through to be sure.) It is sure, "Starry" Starry

Dear Linda,
Just stopped to think, what would it be doing if you were here instead of there! I'd know everyone misses you! It will be waiting for you when you return. It sure was God knows you're one of the very few people I'd write to when I'm down & out. It's nice to know you care a heart to heart talk to even if it does help the mail now & then. It's a total stranger. It's funny how two people can meet as strangers & become the best of friends in one day and, in some cases, a short period of time, become total strangers. Remarkable, isn't it? Oh, I'll see you next summer. I'll be looking forward to it. Love ya, Starry

Linda,
Sorry about my last writing. I had the surgery & while I was writing the letter had a delusion and while writing situation & help the situation on vacation & help the situation Starry

Linda

Geez, it's going to be lonely in government this year. U.S. History was fun until we got moved - that's something I never could understand. I got your letter & tried remember - don't do anything we wouldn't do. OK.) If you ever get to Canton - come see me. Lots & luck this year & every year. Stay sweet & you'll do great!

Remember in 9th grade when we went to those dances at school. How, weren't they the dead ones! I'll never forget you vowing you'd never go to High School one if they all turned out that way. Seems to me we went to most of em anyway & sure suffered a lot. Why couldn't we get dances like the other girls? Some guys needed to wake up!

Remember last Homecoming & all the fun we had selling concessions on the Red Oak side. I think you could pass for a genuine flirt! ... I'll never forget how badly you wanted Pat to ask you to the dance and finally at the last minute he did. You two looked so happy at the dance. You looked so innocent (for once) (only kidding). Poor Pat, he sure could use some more encouragement. Our tactics sure didn't enthuse him much. He just doesn't care for girls. Remember that day we went on the Picnic to Green Valley? He sure had gobs of fun, fishy fun, that pony thing sure hurt too. You were always one for the devilish pranks

I'll never forget all the times we used to stay over at each others houses, and all the dumb junk we'd do. We sure got into a lot of deep conversations too. We both learned a lot.

Can't forget the trip to Conception either, and the nights we stayed up so late just talking. Seems like we never ran out of things to say. We sure got to know a lot of the kids better too. (yes I have one special one in mind)

It was sure hard to leave that place. I think I'd like my Heaven to be like that (if I make it). Those priests sure knew how to make you feel close to God.

Linda,
We have many memories, mostly those envolve us as "Eatin' Scholars!" We sure have ole Joe "a hard time" the last study Hall you were always one Partner yet (I should know after 2 yrs.! Dear we remember the "Romp" C.Y.O. experiences. (like the night you were locked out of the room & I showed my best assets) & what was something else - & I'd love to do it all again!)

I hope you'll remember your Crestonian friends & have a great time in your Ole home Town"!

Love & best of Luck - Lon

Linda,
It has been fun knowing you these past two years. The best part was getting to know each other. Don't ever forget history class. Write soon if possible + have a lot of fun the coming years.
Peace
Diana

Linda
Sorry to miss you this year, but Mary Lynn & I have the same lunch. Hope Chicago works out for you. You're a good kid so stay clean.
Good Luck
Yours
Arlene

Linda,
I know what it's like to move, but if it will make you feel any better — we'll always remember you around here! You're to nice a kid to be forgotten.
Lots of luck in the future. Luvya,
Becky

Linda,
You're a Sweet + Neat girl! Stay that way! Hope we have as much fun this yr as we had last - even without Latin.

(cont.) Remember that night you & Charlie, and Tom and I went to the show and then out to Williams' afterwards for pizza's. That sure was lots of fun.

I'll always remember the cupid playing you did behinds my back to try & get Tom to give me his ring. I sure appreciated the fact that you cared, sorry to say it never worked. Without a doubt it never will. Hey Cupid, what happened? I'll never forget how much you liked Tom & how much you were hurt when I went out with him. I felt bad but yet I was glad. How deceitful. Think that's all over now. ?!0^{0}?

Linda, You were always so good at listening and an ongoing miss. It this year. Meet lots of friends and have fun

Linda.

How could I ever forget all the times you wrote all over my mirror! What a messy way to have a fun kicks. You're Nuts!

I think we should have that corner on Levy and Spruce streets dedicated to us. We spent a lot of time standing on that spot thru all kinds of weather.

Our Jr. year was probably the most hectic and the most fun. I'll never forget how angry you'd get at me if I didn't come to school early in the morn. Remember all the corny junk that went on before Chem. class. That was something else. History was a blast too. Good ole Mary & crazy Roberts.

W O W.

If you ever Candy Stripe again, watch those STICKY fingers!

Hope the future is bright & cheery for you & yours.

May God grant you all that is best & Bless and Keep you always

Love Ya Forever Margie.

To a great and kind young girl. It has been fun knowing you. It will not sort of your birthday party.

Linda.

Be good & lots of luck in matter what you do. I'll never forget my party. It was really great! We sure miss you around here.

Linda, "Sorry"

Linda
Next time I see ya
I'll hit you with a beaver tail
Marty

Linda,
Well, Well
couldn't back another year of old CHS? Oh sure
maybe in the Big city
they offer 3 years of Latin—
Lots of Luck Linda Always
Your a great Girl and I the next time
we go
can we late for chapel!!
